

CAPELLA HANOI NAMED NO.81 IN THE WORLD'S 50 BEST HOTELS 2026 EXTENDED LIST

The list celebrates an additional fifty of the world's most exceptional hotels

3 September 2026 – Capella Hanoi in Vietnam has been named No.81 on 1 September 2026 in the extended 51-100 list of The World's 50 Best Hotels 2026, revealed by 50 Best.

Following its introduction in 2025, the second edition of this extended list features fifty more industry-defining hotels from six continents. New for 2026, the voting window has been extended to three years, enabling consideration of more hotels; those that voters may not visit so frequently but remain memorable.

The World's 50 Best Hotels extended 51-100 list was curated by The World's 50 Best Hotels Academy - a global panel of more than 800 independent experts, each selected for their insight into the international hotel landscape.

Capella Hanoi is an intimate ultra-luxury hotel in the heart of Hanoi's historic French Quarter, celebrating the glamour and artistry of the 1920s. Designed by renowned architect Bill Bensley, the hotel draws inspiration from the era's legendary artists, composers, and performers. A true culinary destination, Capella Hanoi is home to acclaimed restaurants and bars offering distinctive gastronomic experiences, complemented by individually styled rooms and suites and highly personalised service.

Faye Huggett, Director of Community for The World's 50 Best Hotels, says: "The 51–100 list recognises fifty more exceptional hotels that represent the very best of global hospitality. This extended list broadens the spotlight to a remarkable community of properties and the passionate people who bring them to life - each one defining what great hospitality means today. Every hotel here has earned its place through our expert Academy's votes and we hope their achievements will go on to inspire future travels."

Hildegard Anzenberger, General Manager of Capella Hanoi, says: "This recognition reflects a very deliberate journey by every single colleague at Capella Hanoi, united by the ambition to be the best in the world. We are deeply honoured to be included in The World's 50 Best Hotels 2026 extended 51–100 list, but this achievement is no accident. This recognition is the result of disciplined training and an unwavering focus on maintaining the highest standards of service for every guest. This ethos is deeply embedded in how we work every day, and our inclusion among the world's best is perhaps the clearest affirmation that this commitment to training and service is at the heart of our journey all along."

The awarded establishments will be recognised at the fourth edition of The World's 50 Best Hotels awards ceremony in Paris on 15 September at Les Salles du Carrousel. It's a pivotal date in the global travel and hospitality calendar that will inspire consumers, travellers and hoteliers around the globe.
