

CAPELLA UBUD, BALI OFFERS NEW CAPTIVATING ADDITIONS TO CAPELLA CURATES

A collection of immersive experiences inspired by the destination.

Bali, 1 September 2024 - Capella Ubud, Bali, is excited to announce new additions to Capella Curates, which showcase exclusive access to creative art communities to the masterminds of the camp's whimsical interiors and mouthwatering local culinary traditions.

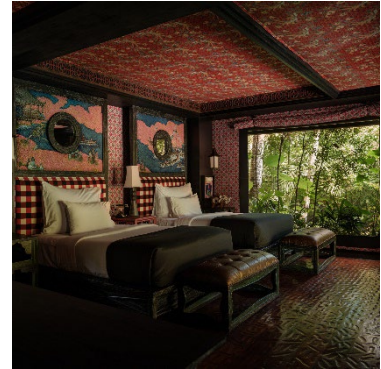

Capella Ubud, Bali

Nestled within the verdant rainforest and swaying rice fields of the enchanting artist hamlet of Keliki Village, Capella Ubud, Bali, is renowned for its immersive and destination-inspired experiences. Our Capella Culturists have scoured Bali, leaving no leaf unturned in their quest to create the Capella

Curates program, offering guests unique opportunities to engage with the local community and uncover hidden gems.

Design Escapism

Crafted as a tribute to the genius mastermind behind the iconic design of Capella Ubud, the illustrious Bill Bensley. This one-of-a-kind experience invites guests to embark on an exhilarating journey, traversing the very trails that inspired Bill's magnificent creations. The journey begins at the Neka Museum, where a treasure trove of art awaits discovery. Here, guests marvel at the works of Balinese and international artists who once enchanted Bill's imagination.

Next, guests embark on an exclusive tour of Bill Bensley's whimsical studio, a realm of creativity where dreams take form amidst vibrant hues and intricate designs. The studio is a wonderland filled with natural treasures and bold, whimsical interiors that echo Bill's visionary spirit. As a final touch, guests explore a quirky antique shop, where each item holds its own tale, completing this kaleidoscopic journey through wonderland filled with natural treasures and bold, whimsical interiors that echo Bill's visionary spirit. As a final touch, guests explore a quirky antique shop, where each item holds its own tale, completing this kaleidoscopic journey through the world of art and design.

Extraordinary Interiors

Guests are invited to delve into the rich tapestry of Balinese art and Capella Ubud's eccentric interior design. This immersive experience is a feast for the senses, offering art enthusiasts and collectors a comprehensive perspective on the creative landscape. Here, primitive, industrial and modern art forms intertwine, revealing the profound connections between past and present.

Participate in insightful discussions with renowned artists that will illuminate the creative process and the inspirations behind their masterpieces. Visit workshops and galleries in Ubud, where you will witness and engage in the magic of art and design coming to life, gaining a deeper appreciation for the beauty and creativity that flourish on the island.

Warung Culture

A journey into the heart of local cuisine, where you can savour the exotic flavours of traditional dishes such as babi guling, nasi campur, and chicken nyat nyat. In these humble yet vibrant eateries, each bite offers glimpses of the island's culinary heritage. Guests can experience the joy of Balinese cooking firsthand and learn about the fresh, local ingredients that give each dish its distinctive flavour. Also, have a taste of Arak, the traditional spirit of Bali.

ABOUT CAPELLA UBUD, BALI

Capella Ubud, Bali was designed by renowned architect Bill Bensley as an homage to the pioneering spirit of those early European settlers from the 1800s. This elegant tented camp is a hidden haven that truly captures the imagination of those who aspire a unique experience, allowing them to enjoy the essence of Ubud's untouched natural surroundings in personalised and stylish comfort..

In 2024, Capella Ubud was named the Best Resort Hotel in Indonesia in the Travel + Leisure 'World's Best Awards'. Each of the 23 tents are situated within a dramatic terraced landscape and nestled between lush rainforest, rice paddy fields, and the sacred Wos River, in an authentic Balinese artist village called Keliki. As a sustainable commitment, not a single tree was cut in the development of Capella Ubud, a GHA Green Collection hotel.
